Letter of condolence on the death of a husband or a wife

10 Marine Drive,
Bombay
18 June 20.....
My dear Prem,

My heart was filled with sorrow when I heard about your sad bereavement. Only the wearer knows where the shoe pinches. I can well understand the loss you have suffered on the loss of your husband/wife, whom you loved so dearly. Try to patch this loss.

Have patience and bear up the loss. What cannot be cured must be endured. One cannot challenge the will of God. You have your sweet baby to live for. If there is anything we can do for you, please write without hesitation.

With love and sympathies from all of us. With sincere regards and sympathies,

Yours sincerely,
RAMESH
