Respected Daddy,

I hope you are hale and hearty. You may be astonished to find in your hands my letter as I am not in the habit of writing letters to you when you are away on business tours. I also know how busy you are during your business tours. It does not look nice to disturb you anymore.

I am sorry to write to you, dear Daddy, that Shanaya has fallen ill. We had consulted the local Doctor, who had advised us to take her to the hospital. Today, we have got her admitted to the hospital. The Doctors attending to her have told us that it would take some time more to cure her well. Dear Mummy is very much perturbed on this account.

Dear Daddy, we are very much worried and mentally disturbed over this sudden misery and request you to come back as early as possible. In case we could have managed ourselves, we would not have bothered you.

If, for one reason or the other, you are not in a position to Cut short your business tour, please, Daddy, write to us Soon as to how we should handle this situation.

Dear Daddy, I hope you will not mind.

I am hoping for your early reply.

Yours affectionately,
Anuradha
