A letter to a stranger thanking him for sending you back your lost bag

Dear Shri Gupta,
I heartily thank you for sending me my bag I had lost on the bus on my way to see a friend. It is very kind of you to take so much trouble for me.

In fact the bag was very important for me. It contained my daughter's original certificates and testimonials, and some important court documents.

Words fail me to express my thanks to you. I again thank you for the trouble.

Yours sincerely,
Yogendra Agarwal
