Letter to a friend describing the best way of spending a holiday

22 Church gate
Bombay
2nd July 20____

My dear Sham,

I was very happy to receive your letter describing how you intend to spend your coming holidays. It seems you have decided to spend a month by the sea, swimming and just 'lazing' about the whole day. My dear Sham, don't you think there are better and healthier ways to spend your holidays?

If I were you, I would collect a few friends and spend my days hiking over the hills near you, sleeping out in the open if necessary, living on the simple country fare and fresh air.

Wouldn't that be preferable from the health point of view than days by the sea, just doing nothing? Of course, you know best what is good for you and what you want.

I hope you won't mind my having made all these suggestions and writing like a stuffed-up adult. But then, I am so much older than you. With all good wishes for a happy holiday wherever it may be?

Yours sincerely,
Rama Kumar
